Tellurian donates to Family & Youth in support of youth leadership development and victim services

(Lake Charles)— Family & Youth was presented with a $10,000 donation from Tellurian in support of youth leadership development and victim services to benefit the city of Sulphur.

From the donation, $5,000 will support youth leadership development through The Leadership Center for Youth (TLC) and $5,000 will support victim services through the Human Services Response Institute (HSRI), both Divisions of Family & Youth.

The Leadership Center for Youth provides guidance, leadership development, career exploration, and civic engagement opportunities to facilitate success and involvement for young people in the community.

The Human Services Response Institute works on behalf of children & Families, as well as businesses & Industries, affected by the changing environment. HSRI's organized system enables it to proactively address emerging human needs to improve the area's quality of life, identifying and responding to community challenges brought about by growth and change.

Family & Youth has been serving the community since 1970. It is the belief of Family & Youth that all individuals possess the ability to solve their own challenges and live full and healthy lives when support is available. It is the mission of Family & Youth to provide affordable and professional support through programs and services dedicated to the advocacy, counseling, and education for the people of Southwest Louisiana. Our effort and commitment to building family values will guarantee a stable and stronger community. For more information call 337.436.9533 or visit www.fyca.org. Family and Youth is a United Way supported agency.
