OUR DIVISIONS

Chances are someone you know has used one of our eight divisions in some way over the years, whether it is career guidance, or perhaps individual counseling, or helping today's youth become tomorrow's leaders. Because of the wide range of services we provide, you may not be aware of the full scope of all we have to offer. We'd like to highlight the life changing programs available through Family & Youth. It is thanks to our partners that we are able to help so many.

WE ARE DEDICATED TO MAKING A DIFFERENCE ONE CHILD AT A TIME.

The Children & Families Action Network (CFAN) provides advocacy education and promotes mission-based advocacy to increase civic engagement, encourage community wide collaboration and serve as a catalyst for changes in public policy on behalf of children, families and communities.

The Children's Advocacy Center (CAC) is a child-friendly facility designed to coordinate services for children who have been reported as sexually or severely physically abused. The center's well-trained staff work together with area prosecutors, law enforcement agents, social service workers, therapists, victim advocates and medical professionals to investigate child abuse allegations while reducing the effects of trauma from the experience.

Performance Employee Assistance and Business Services is a powerful resource for business and industries. From counseling and professional development, to critical incident stress management, we support the workforce through challenges that occur either on the job or at home, so they continue to remain productive and successful reaching higher levels in professional and personal development.

Nonprofit Impact is a leadership development organization dedicated to equipping nonprofit leaders with the tools necessary to develop skills, increase capacity and master competencies in the nonprofit sector through training, consultation and community-building networks.

FAMILY & YOUTH

building a stronger community

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) are trained volunteers who speak in court for the best interests of a child who has been removed from their home due to abuse and/or neglect. These volunteers are ordinary people from all walks of life who step-up to assist judges in getting to know the child and their specific case. These volunteers are a powerful voice for abused and neglected children.

The Human Services Response Institute (HSRI) facilitates solutions for changing environments in Southwest Louisiana. Work is done on behalf of children and families, as well as business and industries to address human needs and improve the area's quality of life.

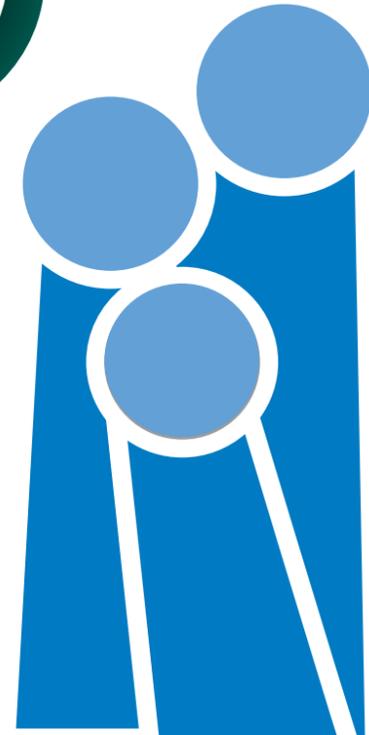

The Leadership Center for Youth (TLC) provides opportunities for positive youth development. Programs are available for leadership development, career exploration, civic engagement and service learning. These programs offer today's youth the path forward to become tomorrow's leaders.

The Shannon Cox Counseling Center is based on the belief that all individuals possess the ability to solve their own challenges and live a healthy life when support is available. Services are provided for children and adults, and include grief counseling, smart parenting, anger management, education, post-partum depression and anxiety, as well as individual, couple and family counseling.

In partnership with the Louisiana Alliance of Children's Advocacy Centers and The Louisiana Child and Youth Trafficking Collaboration (LCYTC), the CAC coordinates services to improve outcomes for youth victims of sex and labor trafficking using a multidisciplinary team (MDT) response model to meet the emergent and long-term needs of exploited children.

These high-quality and much needed services to build a stronger community are made possible through volunteers, grants, fundraising events and donations. All of us working together will ensure a positive and productive future for Southwest Louisiana.
