LAKE CHARLES – This holiday season, CITGO employees generously donated toys to support children served through the Children’s Advocacy Center (CAC) and Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), both Divisions of Family & Youth. Family & Youth provides services to children who have experienced sexual or severe physical abuse through the CAC and offers trained volunteers through CASA who advocate in court for children removed from their homes due to abuse or neglect.

“I’m inspired by the generosity of our employees at the CITGO Lake Charles Refinery. Their gifts to Family & Youth will brighten the season for children navigating incredibly difficult circumstances. This partnership reflects our ongoing commitment to the well-being of families and to the strength of our community,” said Sterling Neblett, Vice President & General Manager of the CITGO Lake Charles Refinery.
